

Four generations

Scribner Good Samaritan News

It may be cloudy outside but we are all smiles and in good cheer inside. Our open house was especially nice Sunday.

We had good music by LaVonne Moeller with Tessa Dahl and Deane Stumpe. They put us in the Christmas mood. All the goodies staff, friends and kitchen made were delicious! And the fellowship tremendous! All in all, it was a great start to the Christmas season.

We welcome Emma Lubker, Clara Lhotak and Dwayne Wolf to our center family.

Gertie Hoetfelker is a patient in the hospital.

Elizabeth Roehrs celebrated her birthday Dec. 1. Clara Lhotak's birthday is Thursday, Dec. 8; Edna Peter's is Saturday, Dec. 10; and Catherine Robert's is Sunday, Dec. 11. We wish them a happy birthday.

Bill and Ona Pfeiffer celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary Saturday, Dec. 10. We wish them a very happy anniversary.

Pastor Brunner had chapel services today, Dec. 7, and St. Paul's of Hooper on Dec. 14.

Our monthly birthday dinner will be Tuesday, Dec. 13.

Now is the time for us to enjoy all the visits, caroling and happenings of this special season.

Food collection scheduled for Low Income Ministry

The Congregational Christian Couples Club met Monday with a turkey dinner for 17 member families and ten guests.

Ed Johnson opened the meeting with his farewell speech. The group will donate to the Open Door Mission and Salvation Army.

A plaque honoring past and present organists will be a new project with Harry Hummel and Gertrude Swanson in charge.

Janette Goodrich entertained with the thought for the day a reading from the greatest that ever lived "Messages from Heaven."

A Christmas letter to Joan Killingsworth from her eighth grade teacher, Vera Kady, was read.

A food collection for the Low

Income Ministry will be in the north exit of the church. Cheer baskets will be packed Friday at 9:30 a.m.

Scribner extension

The Scribner Extension Club met Nov. 28 at the home of Ruby Hummel for a dessert luncheon.

President Evelyn Vavricek conducted the meeting.

Water resources was the topic with Corliss Ries as leader. Many ways to preserve our most precious resource water was completed with a questionnaire.

The Christmas party will be at the home of Jerry Mohr.

Milligan Senior Center news

The weather man keeps us guessing as to what will be going on when we wake up in the morning. So far not too bad but who knows what tomorrow will bring.

Donnetta called bingo on Thursday and Don won blackout. Our caller on Monday was May and Ida won blackout. The next bingo will be Thursday.

The calendar for the week of Dec. 11 includes: Monday, Dec. 12—Gladys Dahl sing-a-long at 11:30 a.m. and card party at 1 p.m.; Tuesday, Dec. 13—Scribner C's Christmas party at 7 p.m.; Wednesday, Dec. 14—Birthday dinner; and Thursday, Dec. 15—Bingo at 11 a.m.

Our weather a year ago Dec. 5 was a low of 33 degrees with a little rain and a high of 38. In 1948, we had a blizzard at Wisner with 20 degrees the warmest temperature.

Monday, Dec. 12—Baked ham, potato salad, creamed cabbage, rye bread/margarine, pears, birthday cake and milk.

Tuesday, Dec. 13—Sloppy Joe w/bun, au gratin potatoes, green beans, orange and milk.

Wednesday, Dec. 14—Baked chicken quarters w/gravy, whipped potatoes, broccoli, wheat roll/margarine, birthday cake and milk.

Thursday, Dec. 15—Beef vegetable stew, Scandinavian blend, biscuit/margarine, peaches and milk.

Friday, Dec. 16—Pork patty w/onion gravy, whipped potatoes, beets, wheat bread/margarine, lemon pudding and milk.
